

RAG stands for Retrieval Augmented Generation.
It allows AI systems to retrieve external knowledge before answering.
Vector databases store embeddings for similarity search.